

The French community like others is the fabric of our great city. Multiculturalism is definitely a strength we can be proud of.

I am not sure as a sitting councillor that this has come up before during my terms. This definitely important to ask the question of then city clerk.

Albert