

I am aware of the francophone group and know they are an active and welcoming part of our community, led by Adriana Tornar.

A healthy and diverse community is one thing that makes our country a wonderful place to live. I would reach out to this group to improve my understanding of their needs.

Mike Quince,

Candidate for the position of mayor for the Municipality of Sioux Lookout